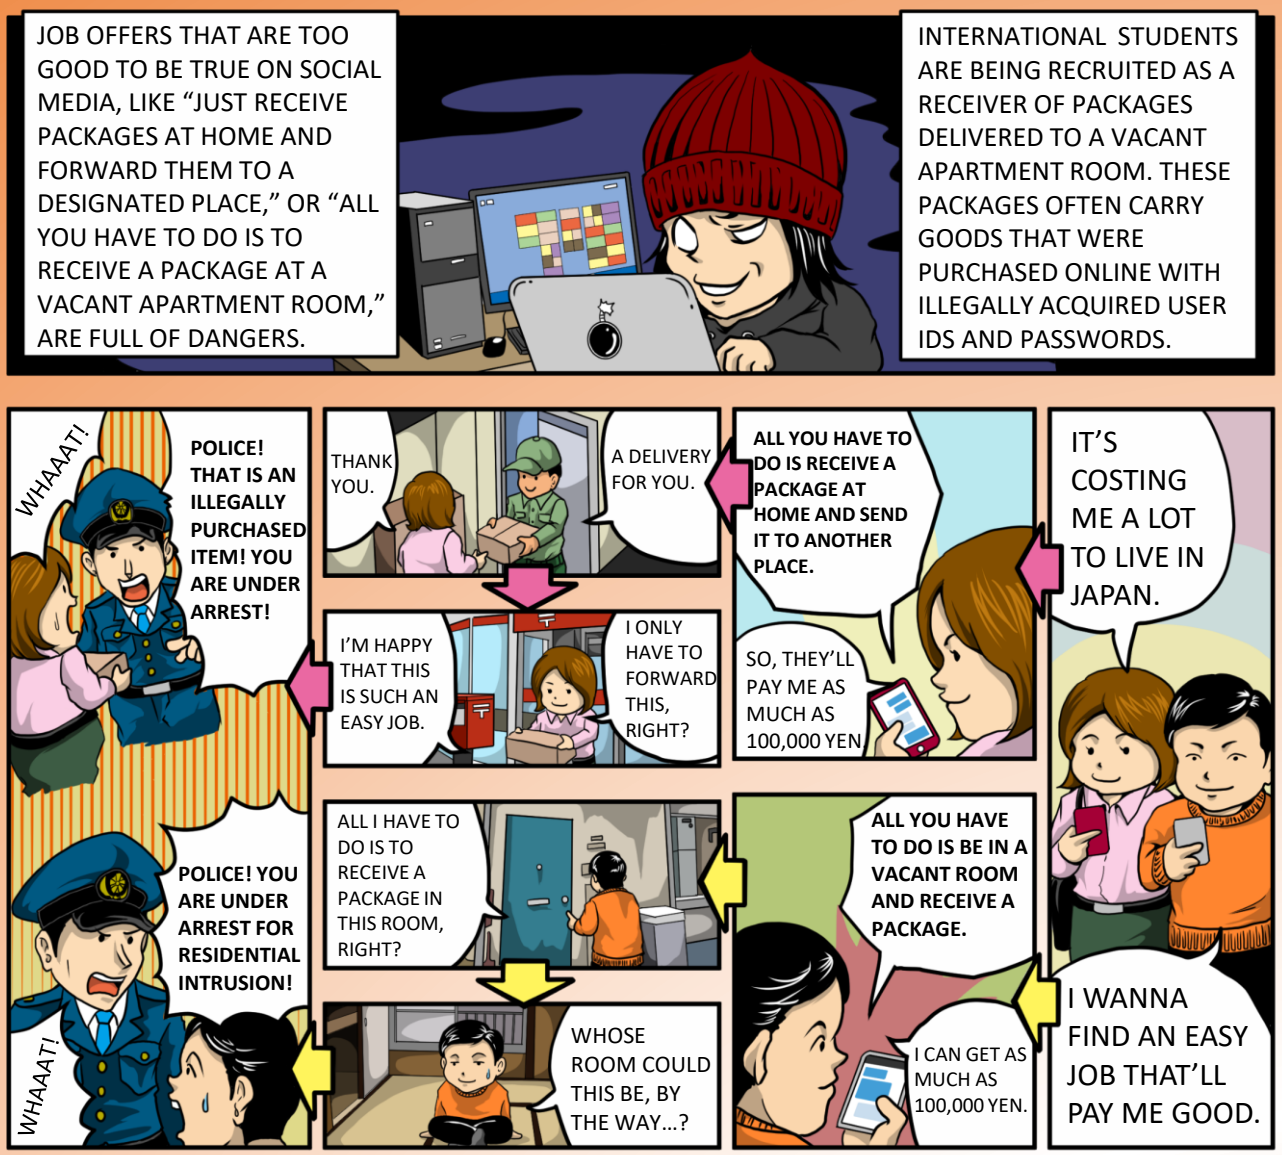
Be careful of “Easy work with big money”

英語



How the criminal operates

- There have been cases where a criminal syndicate made unauthorized access to computer network then stole someone’s user ID and password and used them for online shopping, and
  - had an international student receive the purchased item and forward it to another offender, or
  - arranged shipment to a vacant apartment room and sent an overseas student to that room to receive the delivery.
- If you enter a vacant room without formal permission or receive a package there, you will besubject to punishment as an accomplice.

If you receive the package

Theft Imprisonment for not more than 10 years or a fine of not more than 500,000 yen
(※The name of offense varies, depending on the manner of the crime.)

If you enter a vacant room without permission

Breaking into a Residence Imprisonment for not more than 3 years or a fine of not more than 100,000 yen

Official Website

Beware of “Easy work! You only have to receive a package”!

International Criminal Investigation Division,
Fukuoka Prefectural Police Headquarters